Director NSI Reviews Small Savings Performance In Goa State

Shri Anil Bhattacharya, Director and Head of Department, Ministry of Finance, Government of India during the visit to Goa called on Shri J.P. Singh, IAS Chief Secretary, Government of Goa and Shri Uddipt Ray, IAS, Finance Secretary, Government of Goa and discussed about the performance of small savings collections and the strategies to be adopted for mobilization of savings in the state. He appraised the Chief Secretary and the Finance Secretary that NSI has launched Rural Savings Campaigns in the selected villages in the state to promote savings in the rural areas to increase the market share of Small Savings Collection as the rural segment still remains untapped. He appealed to the State Government to extend all out support in mobilization of savings in the state and requested the state authorities to appoint more new agents in rural areas as it will provide job opportunity to the unemployed people if they take up small savings agencies. He further mentioned that the NSI has drawn an ambitious plan of opening of 1,50,000 accounts in rural area till end of the financial year 2007-08.

Shri Anil Bhattacharya, Director, NSI also met Shri R.P. Gupta, Director, Postal Services, Goa and discussed about the various problems faced by the investors and agents at the distribution channel i.e. Post Offices and need for better services by the Post Offices. Shri B.R. Raigar, Regional Director, NSI, Mumbai Centre and Shri S.L. Kureel, Regional Director (HQ) were also present in the meeting.

NSI Organizes Rural Savings Campaigns Throughout The Country

The Regional Directors of NSI throughout the country launched Rural Savings Campaigns during December & January. The objective of the organizing the Rural Savings Campaigns is to create an awareness among the rural masses about National Savings Products and mobilize maximum savings in the rural area. This would help the NSI to broaden the investor's base in the rural sector and increase the market share of small savings.

During the Rural Savings Campaigns, Regional Directors organized the meetings of the villagers with the help of local influential people and Self Help Groups and explained them the need and importance of savings for the people in rural area. They have also appealed to the unemployed people in rural area to take up small savings agencies, as it will provide them an opportunity to develop a financial support by way of Commission. RDs have also mentioned during their meetings with the district authorities and local officials that NSI has fixed an ambitious target of opening of 1,50,000 accounts in the rural sector till the end of current financial year. RD's have also organized the training programmes and meetings for small savings agents and postal officials to update their knowledge about the NS Products which will help them in mobilizing maximum savings.
